IOM Afghanistan
North Waziristan Displacement Response

IOM • OIM

25 September 2014

IOM continues to identify Afghan families displaced by conflict in Pakistan's North Waziristan Agency (NWA). As of 25 September, 626 households (3,602 individuals) have been assessed in Khost, Paktika and Kabul provinces. Working with government and humanitarian partners, IOM is providing assistance to vulnerable returning Afghans, many of whom were forced to abandon their homes and livelihoods in Pakistan.

IOM organized a distribution for 82 vulnerable displaced Afghan families in Khost province on 25 September. The families were selected based on their needs from four districts in Khost (Matoon, Gurbuz, Tani and Mandozi). Each family received an IOM non-food items (NFI) kit with basic household relief supplies as well as a hygiene kit and food. The Afghan Directorate of Refugees and Repatriation (DoRR) and other UN/NGO partners were present at the distribution.
