Project: Combatting Human Trafficking in Afghanistan

Consulting Services: Review of Training Curriculum and Manuals

The International Organization for Migration is implementing a multi-year counter trafficking project funded by USAID. The objective of the project is to contribute to the prevention of human trafficking, the protection of victims of trafficking (VoTs) and the prosecution of traffickers by assisting the Government of the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan (GIROA) in its efforts to combat human trafficking. To achieve this objective, the project aims to build the capacity of relevant officials of the Afghan government at the national, provincial and local levels, in particular law enforcement and judicial systems through a range of capacity building training. IOM intends hire a Consulting Firm to conduct review of training curriculum and manuals for counter trafficking in Afghanistan.

IOM now invites eligible Consulting Firms to indicate their interest in providing the services. Interested Consulting Firms must provide information indicating that they are qualified to perform the services (e.g. brochures, description of similar assignments, experience in conducting similar projects, availability of appropriate skills among staff, etc.). The provided information must be sufficient for IOM to evaluate the Consulting Firm's capability and eligibility to undertake the assignment. Expressions of interest should contain the following information:

- Core business and years in of operation
- Qualification in the field of assignment
- Technical and managerial structure of the organization
- General qualifications and number of key staff

The Consulting Firms who intent to express their interest shall be locally registered in line to the local regulations and they may associate with other Firms to enhance their qualifications. Copy of Consulting Firm license shall be submitted to email address below, when asking for EoI - long version.

A Consultant Organization will be selected in accordance with the procedures set out in the IOM Procurement Manual IN/168 rev (1).

This is a short version of the EoI intended for advertisement only. Interested consulting firms may obtain a copy of the full version of the EOI sending e-mail to bellow provided address.

EoI with required information specified in the full version must be delivered by hand before 16:00 hours on 28 November 2016.
