EVALUATION FORM:
1.5-day foundation training: (Re-)introduction to Risk Communication & Community Engagement (RCCE) for frontline workers

Afghanistan - COVID-19 RCCE Working Group (September 2020)

[Please tick the appropriate box]	Strongly agree	Agree	Disagree	Strongly disagree
1. I have gained new knowledge
2. The training materials were helpful
3. The length of the training was sufficient
4. Content was very relevant
5. Instructions for the exercises were clear and understandable
6. Participation and questions were encouraged
7. This training will help me do my job better
8. This training will help my organisation
9. The training met my expectations
10. I will recommend this training to other colleagues

What do you think about the following aspects of the training course?
1. Content of the training module
2. Methodology used (i.e. mix of short presentations, small groups, role-plays and plenary discussions)
3. Facilitator
4. Visual appearance of the module
5. Content of the handouts
How useful did you find each session?
Session 1: Welcome & Introduction
Session 2: RCCE: What is it and why does it matter?
Session 3: Risk communication (I-II)
Session 4: Understanding the community and its context
Session 5: Participation: Power to the people?
Session 6: Strengthening participation and 2-way communication
Session 7: Recap of day 1
Session 8: Collecting and responding to community feedback
Session 9: Tabletop exercise
Session 10: Evaluation

How would you improve this training module? List top 3 things
1.
2.
3.

Thank you for your feedback.